TRAVEL AND NATURE INFLUENCED 12 SONG ALBUM 'STAR CODE'

FCC-friendly TITLE TRACKS: Always Shine, Star Code, Bee Dreaming

Indie singer-songwriter Remy de Laroque released his fifth full album Star Code June 2nd, 2022 in NYC. The multi-talented French born Brooklyn based developed his fascinating fifth full length collection from songs that emerged spontaneously as a flood of pandemic creativity, although he would never call his album a pandemic album. The album was entirely performed by Remy and recorded at his home in Bed-Stuy Brooklyn, then mixed in L.A by Marc Daniel Nelson.

During lockdown, Remy developed a Facebook Live show called “Music to Lean On” to help people cope with the unprecedented hard times. He would improvise melodies and beats with a sample pedal, in addition to singing a few covers and originals from his large discography. Unleashed like never before, he engaged his devoted audience performing six days a week, amassing 365 shows. Later, when the world – and live performance opportunities – started opening up, Remy stopped the online show having amassed a huge backlog of songs, culling and producing 12 of them to birth Star Code. Its celestial title is one of many compelling references to natural wonders, and the notion that during difficult times, the stars offer a way of finding our way back. Music available on Spotify, iTunes etc..

Artists Like: Wilco, Sufjan Stevens, Lenon-McCartney, Nick Drake.
