[Single] The BLK LT$ – “Last One”

May 26th, 2023 (Los Angeles, California) –

Singer/Songwriter/Producer The BLK LT$ releases official single “Last One”. Following her highly anticipated return to music the Toronto songstress previously named “Andreena Mill” has proved to be uncompromising when portraying her unparalleled vision and sound. With an undisputed spot at the forefront of the Canadian music scene, she is ready to showcase her unique blend of soulful vocals and contemporary beats with the rest of the world. Bringing a fresh perspective to the genre and infusing it with her own experiences and emotions, The BLK LT$ pronounced “The Black Lotus” proves why she continues to be one of the industry’s best kept secrets and sought out writers/producers. “Last One” captures the essence of her artistry, as she effortlessly blends classic R&B elements with modern sounds. Her smooth vocals ride over a captivating piano, resulting in a song that is both catchy and soulful. With lyrics that explore themes of self-discovery, reflection and empowerment, “Last One” is a powerful and timely release.

In addition to her musical talent Lotus is also recognized for her advocacy work in the black community. She has been a strong voice and mentor for upcoming artists, and her music reflects her dedication to uplifting and empowering marginalised female voices and production. Through her art, she hopes to inspire her listeners to take hold of their dreams and live them. The BLK LT$’s “Last One” is now available on all major streaming platforms. With its irresistible melody and powerful message, it is sure to become a fan favourite and cement The BLK LT$’s place as a rising star in the international R&B music scene.
