About Outlaw MuddBaby

Quickly rising artist Outlaw Muddbaby, or also known as Antwuan, grew up in a small town in Mississippi and began rapping at a young age. His classic southern sound is reminiscent of artists such as 8ball & MJG and Tupac Shakur, with songs such as 'Way Up' and 'Rodeo Off' off his latest EP, Outlaw Muddbaby. With a new generation of rappers coming from the south such as Youngboy Never Brake Again, Jaydayoungan, and OBN Jay, Outlaw stands among these new young rappers as his rise to fame continues to grow. Touring extensively throughout Mississippi and branching out to Houston, TX, his live performance is bound to draw a large crowd. It is Outlaw Muddbaby's professional, and serious performance that draws the crowd in, as this rapper blends the business of music with the art of lyric writing and freestyle rap to draw his listener in. Exploring intricate social themes throughout his vocals, Outlaw Muddbaby brings credibility to his lyrics with experience, maturity, and an innate ability to challenge his audience. The Mississippi-native artist will have listeners engulfed in the musical world he creates with his no-frills approach and realness.
